TURNING WEDDINGS INTO BLOCKBUSTERS

LIFE IS AS SIMPLE AS 'PAUSE AND CLICK'.

Just like words, photographs have the power to make you reminisce an experience and hold onto those memories forever. I try to channel the same power every day by capturing moments worth remembering.

Over the 7 years of my journey, photography has gifted me a new way to look at life. To be able to bring out the unsaid words, feelings and stories through mesmerizing photographs is a satisfying and fulfilling experience that I want to live again and again all through my life. I indeed see the world through my lens, and only my photographs are a testament to how magical that vision is.

With time, I have learned to not just take beautiful photographs but also observe people. I have distinct relationship with my clients where I put in the efforts to understand them, their story, hopes and expectations. Keeping all that in mind, I try to weave a story through photographs that mirror their life.

If you lend me your story, I promise you to make it into art.

A romantic couple is shown in profile, facing each other and about to kiss. They are backlit by a warm, golden light that creates a soft glow around their heads and shoulders. The man is on the left, wearing a light-colored shirt with a beaded necklace. The woman is on the right, wearing a dark top and a necklace. The background is a warm, textured wall.
